The Blessed Al-Aqsa Intifada Intifada of the Arab World... to Islamic Arabism... and Christian Arabism

- Palestine with its children, young men, old men, and women, and with its every stone to aid its Al-Aqsa.
- Sharon the Terrorist's visit to the Al-Aqsa Mosque lit fires under Zionists' feet.
- The Israeli Army is expert at using its lethal weapons - from tanks to missile-equipped airplanes - to deliver the greatest human and material losses to our people.
- Hundreds of martyrs and thousands of wounded are the initial outcome of the Sanctuary [TN: i.e. Al-Agsa] Intifada.
- The Palestinian flag flutters above the dome of the Al-Aqsa Mosque for the first time since 1967.
- Our people within the Green Line are rising up along with their brothers in the northern and southern governorates of the nation.
- Subsequent to the Sanctuary [I.e. Al-Agsa] Intifada. Palestine remains a hand blocking the punch... Who will prevail?

(Sharon surrounded by guards during his attempt to enter the Sanctuary)

Here in our land and in another time, time paused and history stopped to rest its load and cast its shadow on the spot which has remained, since time immemorial, a center of conflict for generations. It (Jerusalem) is the city of prophets and Muslims' first Qibla, and time has stopped it over and again. One such time was the immortal day when Salah Al-Din Al-Ayyoubi liberated it in 1187. And we ourselves have lived through the most recent time: the day the terrorist who committed the most heinous crime against our people (Sabra and Shatila), the terrorist Ariel Sharon, visited the courtyard of the Al-Aqsa Mosque, not knowing or scandalously ignorant of what jerusalem represents to Muslim, Arab, and, in particular, Palestinian hearts. Thus he sparked the war that Israel wanted at a time when we wanted peace, thus revealing an underground flame that is inexhaustible and constantly renews itself whenever it is lit. Israel has received a lesson written by us in blood and in our brothers' and sisters' body parts and blood: it is that Jerusalem is a red line that cannot be dismissed. It is like a volcano about to erupt at any moment, and this indeed was what came about in recent days when Palestinians - young and old, children and men - established without a doubt that the entire world can be reduced to nothingness for the dignity of our holy places and the holiness of our land. Jerusalem is entrusted to us and we bear it around our necks - we will remain until Judgment Day, guarding and defending it and its Islamic and Christian holy places. For this reason the land of Palestine has sought to raise a voice from all sides, a voice made of the blood of hundreds of martyrs and the thousands who were wounded as a natural reaction to the attempt of the terrorist Sharon to sully the Mosque and Judaize Its Arabness. This voice says: "Truth is written in my blood, in a name that my mouth repeats: Jerusalem, I am here to defend you so you may live in peace. Conscript my young, defeat my old, cast stones and terrify the enemy, the criminal."

Those who are on the soil of my blood-soaked country have written and we too shall write. From where shall we start and where shall we go?

- Palestine Jerusalem, the Capital October 28 September 2000 [sic]:
- The Al-Aqsa Mosque is desecrated amidst Islamic, Arab, and international indifference.
- Palestinian youth come from all directions to thwart the attempt to desecrate Al-Aqsa.

In a step that was considered to be a blatant challenge to the feelings of Muslims, Arabs, and Palestinians, wherever they may be, and in an attempt to Judaize the Holy City, convert Muslims' first Qibla to a Jewish temple and synagogue, and annul the national and cultural rights of the Palestinian people, Ariel Sharon the Terrorist, leader of the Likud Party, visited the Al-Aqsa Mosque with the blessing of the Ehud Barak government, which crammed the Sanctuary's courtyard with more than three thousand Zionist soldiers under cover of Israeli helicopters. However, these forces were not able to resist the crowds of our Palestinian people, who came from all over to defend our Islamic holy places. Sharon the Terrorist was unable to climb even one of the Sanctuary's steps, or desecrate any of the three mosques. He faced heavy resistance from citizens who threw stones, shoes, trash, and pieces of metal at him amid shouts of "Allahu akbar" [God is great]. "with soul, with blood, we sacrifice for you, Al-Agsa", and "Sharon, get out". The course of events started around seven-thirty in the morning when Sharon arrived accompanied by a number of Likud members of the Knesset - among them the mayor of West Jerusalem. Passing through the Moroccans' Gate to the blessed Al-Agsa Mosque, he passed between two long lines formed of approximately one thousand Israeli soldiers and police officers who created an umbrella for him with their weapons, making it impossible to so much as see him. Upon entering the Mosque's courtyard, cries of "Allahu akbar" were heard in the air above the city but Sharon still tried to enter the building of the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque. Because Palestinians' bodies formed a bulwark in front of the terrorist Sharon, he was not able to desecrate the Marwani Musalla lopen area for prayer]. The terrorist's visit did not last more than thirty minutes until he left, dragging his tail behind him in disappointment and shame, giving the signal to begin yet another massacre against our Palestinian people.

Palestine - Jerusalem, the Capital - October 29 - September 2000:

"Red Friday," another massacre committed by Israel against people praying at the Al-Agsa Mosque:

In light of the utter failure of Sharon's visit and its goals, the next daylsraeli forces formulated a comprehensive military plan to retaliate against our people who had prevented the visit from being completed with their own bodies, forming human chains to keep Sharon from entering the three mosques of Al-Aqsa. On Friday, Israeli occupation forces entered the area of the Moroccans' Gate with large numbers of special forces. These forces intentionally provoked those praying by simultaneously entering the area via a number of the Mosque's entrances and opening fire on them, killing and wounding them in a scene reminiscent of the events of the Al-Agsa Massacre committed on October 8th, 1990. The fact that this day - in which all available evidence indicates that more than three thousand Zionist soldiers crowded together in the Mosque's courtyards - was just one day after Sharon's provocative visit to the Mosque indicates that the massacre was arranged by Zionists, in mere moments, the Mosque's courtyard was transformed into a war zone in which Israeli occupation forces used live and rubber bullets, an Israeli police helicopter hovered in the sky over the holy Mosque, and Israeli snipers took their positions on top of the wall overlooking the Al-Aqsa Mosque and on top of the Al-Sharaf neighborhood which Jews call the Jewish Quarter. For more than an hour, as the number of martyrs and wounded continued to increase, the brutal occupation forces intentionally prevented ambulances from reaching the Mosque to take away the wounded. Calls were made through the Mosque's minarets asking for help in taking away the injured and offering help to them. As soon as the confrontation broke out within the Al-Agsa Mosque courtyard, it spread like wildfire, especially in the area of Abu Dis, Damascus Gate, Sultan Suleiman Street, and all regions of the country north and south. The most violent confrontations took place on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem, when occupation forces tried to enter the Augusta Victoria and Al-Magasid Hospitals in a provocative, unjustifiable step. They were resisted by young Palestinians who were martyred and wounded by Israeli forces' randomly-fired bullets. In total, there were 6 martyrs and more than 300 wounded in the first day of the Sanctuary [i.e. Al-Agsa] Intifada (Red Friday).

The martyrs were:

Martyr Bilal Ali Khalifeh Afaneh, 29, from Abu Dis, [killed by] a bullet to the chest. He was married and had a daughter who turned one year old the day he was martyred.

 $(\ \)$

- Martyr Muhammad Hussein Farah, from Umm Al-Fahm within the Green Line.
- Martyr Yahya Hassan Faraj, 17, from Beit Safafa.
- Martyr Osama Muhammad Adam Jeddo, 23, from the Old City of Jerusalem, [killed by] a hollow-point bullet to the chest, which tore his liver and ruptured a major vein.
- Martyr Haytham Orayda Eskafi, 45, from the Al-Thawri neighborhood of Jerusalem, [killed by] a bullet to the head. He was married and the father of 3 sons and 2 daughters.
- Martyr Nizar Ibrahim Al-Shuwayki, 19, from Silwan, [killed by] a bullet to the right ear. The martyr had a brother who was also martyred in the intifada.

(Crowds of citizens confronting the occupation forces congregating in the courtyards of the Sanctuary in Jerusalem [i.e. the Temple Mount].

Faced with the brutality and massive size of the deliberate Israeli massacre, the Palestinian leadership has put responsibility for the terrible crime squarely on Israel. It has announced a general strike and mourning on July 30, to last one day. The strike will extend to all corners of the country and will allow our people to honor the struggle of the Al-Agsa martyrs, visit the wounded in the hospitals, and extend condolences to the families of the heroic martyrs.

The leadership's statement reads as follows:

"The Palestinian leadership, as it announces Saturday to be a national day of mourning and general strike to express anger at the Israeli crime, affirms that the Palestinian people will not give up one bit of soil from the Holy City of Jerusalem and will not countenance Israeli acts of aggression and attempts to impose Israeli occupation on the Holy City of Jerusalem, the Sanctuary in Jerusalem, and all holy Christian and Islamic sites in the Holy City of lerusalem. All of our fearless Palestinian people throughout the country have heeded this call to transform the general strike and day of mourning that the leadership has called for into a day of confrontations and violent clashes extending to all governorates of the country north and south and within the Green Line. More are martyred and wounded: the number of martyrs of the Al-Agsa intifada has risen to 13 and the number of wounded has risen to more than 600."

The martyrs and wounded in the country's governorates on July 30th, 2000, were distributed in the following way:

- Nablus Governorate 5 martyrs, more than 100 wounded. and 16 in critical condition. The martyrs were:
- Martyr Khalid Al-Bazyan, 16.
- Martyr Mahmoud Hani Anbara, 24, from Al-Ruwayshid in lordan. He had recently come to visit his relatives in Palestine.
- Martyr Zakariya Al-Kilani, 22, from the village of Siris, a student at An-Nalah National University.
- Martyr Muhammad Al-Qalag, 21, from Tulkarem, a member of the Navy.
- Martyr Amjad Masaeed, 22, from Tubas, first assistant in the Navv.
- In the Governorate of Ramallah and Al-Bireh, one person was martyred, more than 60 were wounded, and 3 are in critical condition. The martyr was Nizar Mahmoud Eideh.
- The southern governorates and Gaza saw 4 martyrs and around 100 wounded.
- The martyrs were:

- Martyr Bassam Al-Balbisi, 45, from the neighborhood of Shuja'iyya. He was an ambulance driver and was martyred while attending to the martyr Muhammad Jamal Al-Durrah.
- Martyr Muhammad Jamai Al-Durrah, 12, was martyred in sight and within earshot of the world as the media broadcast the details of his execution.
- Martyr Muhammad Nabeel Al-Atlah, 25, [killed by] a shot to the head, resulting in severe brain laceration.
- Martyr Maher Rajab Obayd, 22, [killed by] a hollow-point bullet to the lumbar artery - from Jabalia [refugee] camp.
- In Hebron Governorate there were more than 153 wounded and 3 cases of clinical death.
- In Bethlehem Governorate, the cradle of Jesus Christ, 88 were wounded.
- In Tulkarem Governorate, more than 100 were wounded.
- In the capital of Jerusalem, 40 were wounded.
- The following passed away:
- Martyr Emad Asheh
- Martyr Muhammad Jihad Abdulrazzag

Meanwhile, the Palestinian leadership has met continuously with multiple emergency meetings having been held under the presidency of his Eminence the Iconic Leader, Abu Ammar. The leadership has demanded that the United Nations form an international investigative commission to identify and condemn the person or persons responsible for the massacre at Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Noble Sanctuary and to work to end this bloody and blatant aggression against the Palestinian people and its land and holy places.

The leadership has expressed the following in its statement:

"The Palestinian leadership - which is proud of its great people who are filled with national pride and determination to obtain their rights - calls for anyone concerned with the peace process to demand that the Israeli government stop the bloodbath; put an end to the blatant acts of aggression which Israeli forces are committing against the Al-Aqsa Mosque, the Noble Sanctuary, and against our people; to immediately remove their forces from the entrances and gates of the Noble Sanctuary; and for Israeli forces to immediately withdraw from the entrances to Palestinian cities, and to stop firing on defenseless civilians and on a people which is expressing its legitimate right of self-defense of its holy places and land."

- Palestine, the first Sunday of October 2000:
- A mass strike and public mourning shall extend to all governorates of the country and within the Green Line.
- Deployment of dozens of Israeli armored vehicles at the entrances to Palestinian cities.
- Israeli forces use rockets and helicopters in response to our brave heroes' stones.

(The little angel Sara. Have you no shame?!)

10 martyrs and more than 300 [wounded] in Palestinian lands, 7 of whom are in critical condition.

The battle between existence and non-existence has continued, and martyrs have continued falling one after another. Confrontations within the Green Line, where our people are stationed on their land which was occupied in 1948, have continued. Omar Muhammad Ahmed Jabareen, 23, was martyred after being shot directly in the head.

Meanwhile, 50 others were wounded during confrontations which took place in all Arab cities and villages within the Green Line. Demonstrators raised Palestinian flags, black flags, and banners condemning the acts of repression carried out by Israeli forces in the West Bank and Gaza.

- In the country's governorates north and south, the following passed away:
- Nablus Governorate Martyr Jihad Mahmoud Al-Aloul, 23, shot in the head.

Martyr Iyad Muhammad Al-Khashashi, 17, shot in the chest. Martyr Mustapha Hulmi Muhammad Ramadan, 26, shot in the Martyr Husam Naeem Bakheeb, 19, shot in the head. Martyr Samer Tabanja, 10, shot by sniper fire from a helicopter. Martyr Sara Abdulazeem Hassan, 2, shot to death in the head when settlers fired on her father's car.

The Governorate of Ramallah and Al-Bireh - 3 martyrs, around 50 wounded, and 5 in critical condition after confrontations. The martyrs were:

Martyr Muhammad Nabeel Ali Daoud, 16, shot in the head. Martyr Emad Abdulrahman Anati, 24, shot in the head. Martyr, Salah Faqih, 25, from the town of Qatana, shot in the head.

In the southern governorates:

Israeli forces fired dozens of rockets, most of which fell on houses and streets near Salah Al-Din Gate in Rafah. Meanwhile. Israeli forces entrenched at the military post at the Al-Shuhada iunction leading to the settlement of Netzarim fired more than 40 LAU-type rockets on nearby Palestinian houses and on a nearby National Security post, permanently destroying a military liaison post.

At the Al-Shuhada junction, one young man was martyred and more than 100 others were wounded. The martyr was Sami Fathi Al-Taramsi, 17, from the neighborhood of Sheikh Radwan. He was hit by 7 bullets in the upper part of his body and was the target of a LAU rocket fired from a helicopter, a fragment of which entered his body and tore up his abdomen and chest.

In solidarity with their brothers and Palestinian countrymen, all Arab villages and cities within the Green Line have witnessed a complete general strike in which unified marches and demonstrations have been organized in each Arab village and city in protest of the massacre committed against our people. More than thirty demonstrations were held in Galilee, the Triangle, Nazareth, and the cities of Al-Battouf and its towns of Sakhneen, Arraba, Deir Hana, Tamra, Kaboul, Al-Rina, Kafr Kana, as well as a number of towns in the Triangle such as Umm Al-Fahm, Kafr Qara, Al-Tayibe, Tira, Baqa Al-Gharbiyye, and others.

Events of the Sanctuary [i.e. Al-Aqsa] Intifada in the country's governorates on October 2, 2000:

Our people within the Green Line gave up eight martyrs as a sacrifice for Palestine the motherland. Our people within the Green Line continued to announce their rejection of the heinous crime committed by the Israeli occupation against our people in the West Bank and Gaza Strip because what brings us together is greater than lines and borders. The Palestinian masses arose in the 1948 Occupied Territories and shattered Israeli claims and tities to announce that no green lines will divide us from Palestine - Land, Identity, and Human Being. Thus the volcano was lit in Nazareth, Umm Al-Fahm, Sakhneen, Arraba, Al-Battouf, Haifa, Acre, Jaffa, and thirty villages and cities which are Arab in origin and in their residents, Palestinian in their blood and in their existence. 8 martyrs joined the ranks of heroism and sacrifice.

A boy screams?

Bv: Editorial Secretary

I strike with stones against lethal weapons, and you ask me who I am??

I am the one who suffers hunger and whose nerves rip him apart with the siege above me, to my right, and to my left. I have no right even to a piece of cotton or bandage except after we hold symposia and discussions. I'm in the heights overlooking life, impatiently on the lookout, and maybe in the action of unanimously raising right hands to denounce the severe agreement in exchange for life.

And you ask me who I am?

I am the one whose voice has become hoarse filling files with complaints for the sake of my land, my country, my heritage, my ancestors, and my burial grounds. I have carefully put my files on the shelves of neglect, regretting that they did not believe. They gave me time while great power heeded my call and hurried to my aid. A barrage of bullets of all kinds rained down: live, hollow, metal, rubber, 500, 250, 700... They are things and terms which are outwardly one thing and inwardly quite another. At their most basic, they are internationally forbidden. They tear up your nerves, cut your veins open, and explode within your body. After discovering them, we found that they are internationally forbidden, not permitted against us while forbidden against others, and it is not the issue whether one of us is killed, or a few of us, dozens of us, or even hundreds or thousands of us. The issue is that each one of them, not the thousands or millions, [has rights that are] not to be violated. We will say to them even if the whole world stands and denounces them, even then, we will still say, "my mother, my sister, my brother, the baby, and the old man were martyred. This happened and all the residents of the Earth stood by, silent as the Sphinx."

And you ask me who I am??

Yes, you slaughtered my mother, my most beloved, in front of my eyes, my beloved brother, and my child, blood of my blood, and all in broad daylight, and yet what do screaming and wailing get you? Does this brutality have any equal?

And you ask me who ! am??

I am the one who carried the stone on my way to school, on my way to the mosque, and on my way to the market to buy a few things for my children and for my brothers and sisters, is it a return to the Jahiliyya [age of ignorance] or the Age of Civilization?

And you ask me who I am??

I still wonder when my father will return - be it alive and well. among the martyrs, or in a hospital. World, do I not have the right to feel his embrace? Oh civilized people, oh humanity, why do you make this patch of land - which God has blessed with Islam, the Prophet of Guidance, peace be upon him, and the Prophet Christ, peace be upon him - [a place where] we are killed, slaughtered, and driven away, and where we as Islam are made into the enemies of peace, while Islam and the Bible call for peace?

To all those with hidden hands in the peace process:

I am attacked with rockets and internationally forbidden weapons - is it because I am Muslim, Catholic, or Protestant, or is it because I am a Palestinian demanding my own country, my own land, my own heritage, and my ancestors' grave, and I am the first to pick up a pen?

What right do you have to assassinate the smile on my lips? What right do you have to take away my innocence or to kill my () mother and imprison my brother and sister, and on what grounds? Oh rulers of the world, by God, take into account how weak I am as you send your reckless Barak-ian orders to light the fuse of war which will burn everything and everyone. I am just a small, innocent child, and know, oh rulers of the world, that if I am injured, killed, or torn to pieces that I am a martyr, so even when my blood flows I will rejoice because I receive the one who is far greater than you, and all gardens and bliss. If you want me to stop carrying the stone:

Leave my holy places alone and give me back my dignity and my precious country, which is not available to be bought and sold. Give me back my historic stones and the graves of my ancestors, for I will not haggle over them: they are my beliefs and my family, and they are a part of me. I am all the same just a small, innocent child.

I say that the greatest sign of a challenge is to smile with tears in my eyes.

General Barak... What changed today?

- Barak, war general... did not distinguish between the war of glasses... and the field of war... and politics has its leaders!
- If you want to make peace, your signature is not yet inked onto the agreements.
- You've thrown on the wall all treaties, agreements, and international law!

Stones of the earth... are stronger than tanks, rockets, and airpianes!

We will defend our land with our blood "When thou threwest (a handful of dust) it was not thy act, but Allah's."

- What has changed?! * Or been replaced!
- Barak, bless you! You started it with a shot of mercy on the martyr Dalal Mughrabi.

(General Barak.

what has changed today?)

As an extension of the martyrdom of the three leaders in Beirut (the two Kamals - Kamal Adwan, Kamal Nasir, and Abu Youssef Al-Najjar) extending all the way... to the martyr Muhammad Al-Durrah... in the rain of bullets, what is left of the spring of peace?!

Nothing remains in this spring of peace which Israel considered to be an effective part of the road to realizing peace. To the contrary, [Israel's] military leaders (and this has been proved by our Intifada of the Noble Sanctuary), are continuing to abort the peace process and to pull it up from its roots. We have learned from informed sources that the Prime Minister, Defense Minister Ehud Barak issued orders to the Israeli Army Joint Chief of Staff to intensify the operations that special "Arabist" forces under the occupation army are carrying out in the West Bank and Gaza, with the goal of putting an end to the Al-Agsa Intifada.

The Israeli Army Joint Chief of Staff left it up to the leadership of the central region of the Israeli Army to determine the field operations to be carried out by special forces in order to realize this goal, and the leader of the central region of the army, General Yitzhak Eitan, leans towards issuing orders to the Arabist unit - called "Duvdevan" - to execute operations within the Palestinian National Authority's region A.

These sources stated that the operations that General Eitan wishes to carry out include:

- Issuing orders to Duvdevan elements to carry out widespread kidnapping operations within the West Bank and Gaza.
- Liquidation of field commanders and actors who Israel claims are candidates to contribute in the preparation, supervision, and execution of martyrdom operations, be they from Fatah, Hamas, or Islamic Jihad.
- The re-occupation of large areas of Palestinian lands currently under Palestinian control, in the event that the peace process fails, according to a secret Israell Army plan known under the code name "Field of Thorns," in which Israel seeks not to occupy the territories permanently but to use them as a "bargaining chip" during the peace negotiations to come.

in conclusion neither the blood of children, the remains of their bodies, the ink of agreements, nor commitments and promises will stop Barak from continuing with his plan, which seeks to put an end to the peace process in its entirety in order to preserve his political future in Israel. This is due to his belief that this blood, these acts of violence, and Israeli bombing of innocent people's houses will prevent the curtain from closing on his political future.

Calls... Pleas for help... And screams?!

- Oh Muslims in the corners of the world, the first Qibla and Third after the Two Holy Mosques... the Cradle of Islam and of Guidance, the Masra [starting point of Muhammad's night journey, i.e. Jerusalem] of Allah's Messenger is calling you; heed the call!
- Jerusalem, the first Qibia and your first Kaaba rescue it before it becomes another Andalus!
- Oh Arab world, one Arab poet calls to you saying:

Waken... and rise... oh Arabs... For you are already up to your knees

Decision will come by unifying the Arab dialogue, Arab goals, and Arab ranks!

- Oh Christian world:
- Christ was born in Bethlehem in Palestine! And he grew up in Nazareth in Palestine!

So come to the aid of the cradle of Jesus Christ... and rescue the Church of the Holy Sepulcher!

 Let the call to prayer rise roaring to the sky and let the bells of resurrection clang above!
